

SHISMUN 2024: Journalism Guide

Head of Journalism: Riti Aggarwal

Email: riti.aggarwal01@gmail.com

Phone number: 9810196178

Things to keep in mind

1. Emails should use the following subject format: "Task number: your name." For example, if your name is John Doe and you are submitting Task 5, your email subject should be "Task 5: John Doe." Emails with incorrect subject formats will not be considered.
2. Don't plagiarize
3. Don't be afraid to ask questions
4. Please submit all tasks on time
5. Accepted formats are Google Docs, Word or PDF.

Day 1

Task 1: Observational Reporting

Objective: Each journalist will be assigned a specific committee and must report on its proceedings from a unique perspective.

Word Limit: 250-350 words.

Style: Formal, with a clear headline and quotes if available. Use a newspaper-style format.

Task 2: Creative Freedom

Objective: Pick any topic related to a committee or the conference and create a piece with complete creative freedom.

Requirements:

Format: Any format—article, poem, story, op-ed, etc.

Length: Flexible; keep it concise and engaging.

Day 2

Task 3: Op-Ed (Personal Opinion)

Objective: You will be assigned a committee and write an op-ed about its agenda.

Requirements:

Word Limit: 250-350 words.

Content: Share your personal opinions and analysis of the committee's topics. Use facts to support your viewpoint and provide clear arguments.

Style: Formal.

Task 4: One Moment

Objective: Write a brief, creative description of a memorable moment from the committee sessions.

Requirements:

Word Limit: 100-150 words.

Content: Use imaginative language to capture a key moment, highlighting its impact and atmosphere.

Format: Short and creative